

TESTIMONIALS

“I saw Libby speak at the Healthcare Businesswomen’s Association Annual Meeting. She was absolutely fabulous – the story she tells is a perfect blend of credible business experience, fascinating life circumstance (without being cloying – this is tough to pull off) and helpful insight into how to reframe stagnant perspectives and effect real change. The best part is her authentic enthusiasm and humor - and her skillful avoidance of the type of labored, rah rah cheerleading cliché trap that many speakers fall into. I am not alone in feeling this way as her talk sparked a long and interesting dinner conversation among conference participants.”

Courtney Rice, Director, Global Pharmaceuticals and Healthcare Practice

“Thank you... You turned what could have been very awkward, following the eulogy of one of our members, into a poignant and positive moment. The feedback on your branding keynote has been extremely positive and people are still referring to the points you made. We’re very pleased with the ROI your presentation gave our association members. “

Adam S. Finney Vice President, Natural Products Association

“What a pleasure it was to attend your workshop at Comcast today. I left feeling uplifted, motivated and engaged in my career, knowing who I am and what I have to offer, as did all of my colleagues. I think you’re amazing!”

Amy Scribner, Writer/Producer, Style On Air Promos

“The leadership and management principles I learned from Libby have increased my productivity, improved communication and even balanced my often-challenging work and family schedule. She helped me become a better leader!”

Todd Blevins, Vice President, Cadbury Schweppes

“Our members left your keynote with a renewed sense of optimism as well as some timely tools for capturing the mindshare and the market share, despite growing competition and shrinking budgets. Thanks again for your energy and professionalism.”

Vickie Singer, Vice President, Strategic Partnerships, US Travel Association

“We’ve seen a lot of great speakers here at Disney, but Libby Gill’s presentation on Creating a Culture of Accountability was one of the most inspiring I’ve seen yet. She managed to blend practical business information with deep personal insights about personal responsibility and leadership. After a very challenging year, our group was ready to get back to work, totally re-energized by her empowering message.”

Sharon Williams, Senior Vice President, ABC-Disney

“We are overwhelmed by your professionalism and dynamic delivery of your presentation, Creating High-Passion Teams: Maintaining a Culture of Excellence & Engagement. We consistently heard, ‘She was a dynamic speaker and I enjoyed her presentation very much.’ Please allow this to serve as a resounding affirmation for your program!”

Melissa Curzon, President, Financial Women International

“Libby’s common sense approach to goal achievement and progress in the workplace helped re-direct me, re-motivate me and get me “unstuck” from the rut I had dug myself. I was so impressed by her candor and sincerity I asked if she’d be my executive coach.”

Kathy V. Magee, Senior Vice President, Bank of Texas

“Libby walked out and addressed 5,000 people and within moments had them in the palm of her hand.”

Salim Khoja, CEO, The Power Within

“Your enthusiasm and the life experiences you shared with us offer such a positive motivation for all us. Thank you!”

Lisa Gore, Vice President, Triad Hospitals

“Libby did a great job energizing our group. She’s definitely a class act!”

Bill Lee, President, Customer Reference Forum
