Innovative Marketing Mastery: Creativity in Action to Produce Profitable Results

This high-energy "how-to" program shows you and your audience creative methods you can use to generate tons of new ideas and improve your sales & marketing efforts. In this session, attendees will leave with a multitude of creative direct and internet marketing techniques for subtly—and not so subtly—getting prospects and customers to buy more products and services, and stand-out above the competition.

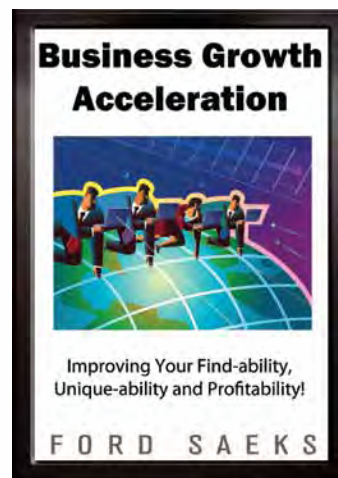

Web 2.0 and Beyond: How to Monetize Social Media Marketing Efforts

Using Internet Marketing Tactics, Blogging Strategies, Social Media Networking and More... Ford reveals the seven critical components that must be implemented effectively to supercharge your online marketing efforts. This interactive session is perfect for everyone, regardless of their role in the process OR level of technical expertise. You and your attendees will take away internet marketing strategies in plain English, SEO tactics to get top rankings, traffic-generating resources to supercharge your sales, and Social Media Marketing strategies that help you protect your brand, attract more prospects and produce profitable results.

Secrets of Sales Success: Beyond Your Typical Sales Training

This interactive "Action-Training" creates a lasting positive impact. If you want to supercharge your management and sales force for long-term success and keep them performing at higher levels, then this is the program to choose. Like all of my presentations, it's about actions and results. I'll help your audience increase first-time and repeat sales while improving customer loyalty. I'll guide them through proven strategies, providing your group with immediate action steps they can use to maximize their sales effort.

Business Growth Acceleration™: Improving Your Find-ability, Unique-ability and Profitability!
