

TECHNOLOGY EXPERT ♦ AUTHOR ♦ GETTING' GEEKY HOST ♦ TRAINER

Gina Schreck, CSP

Digital Immigration Officer

Gina Schreck will make you look like a ROCK STAR as she helps your audience, not only understand social media and today's technology, but actually feel empowered to apply it immediately to improve their business! A professional speaker for over a decade, Gina connects with audience members, using humor and real examples that they can relate to. She can also take folks on a deeper dive in a breakout session to help them begin to apply lessons learned.

Gina is a business owner, author, and she's been called the Twitter Queen and Social Media Maven!*

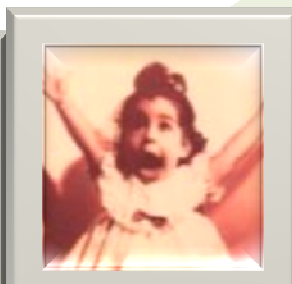

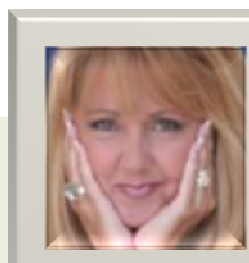

If your events are filled with Generation X and Generation Y attendees, quit bringing in Generation ZZZZZzzzzzz speakers! Known as the "Cheerman of the Bored" Gina is a hit every time!

She is also the founder & "Digital Immigration Officer" at Synapse 3Di, LLC, (the leader in 3D interactive learning!) and the host of Getting' Geeky, the web show, that helps make technology a little less scary.

"What a tremendous job you did at our conference. From great content that was relevant and action oriented to your fun style of delivery—you were the talk of the show. Thank you" Carl Mahnke, Hyatt Corporation

"Gina's program are packed with information and yet everyone has fun learning. We love bringing her back again and again, she's always FRESH!" Jody Petry, Memorial Hospital

"Great job showing our teams new ways to use technology to learn and connect. Amazing information for our virtual teams."
Kevin Dyster, IBM Global Services
