Get Switched On! - The Power of Attitude and Activity

Chip's "Get Switched On!" program floods the room with palpable energy that inspires and motivates your people. When your team is "Switched On", they take performance to new levels to increase sales, provide stellar customer service and learn new skills. Chip shows the audience effective strategies how to "Get Switched On!" and live a life of greater energy and possibility. This Is NOT a Speech

"Get Switched On!" is an interactive experience that challenges participants to reevaluate their current vision, game plan, mindset and results. Chip's content and style fully engages participants and gets them involved. This remarkably energizing program is perfect to open or close your conference.

Chip does his homework and customizes the presentation to focus on your needs and rev up your team to have energy at work and achieve exceptional performance. Your employees will be "Switched On" to deliver their very best more consistently.

Get "Switched On!" Addresses these Performance Concerns

- Why early detection is essential to reverse failure?
- What is truly important in life and what is your purpose?
- What the key is to achieve long-term success and balance?
- How to close the gap between where you are and where you can be?
- Why your current vision dictates your efforts and results.
- What brutal facts need to be faced and the action to take now?
- How you can be at your best consistently with motivation at work and home?

"I was extremely impressed by the amount of time you spent researching us and understanding our culture and what we wanted our initiatives to be coming out of the event. Within three minutes your knowledge and passion for our organization came through and excited and energized our team. Getting Switched On for me was truly about Logan's taking what they learned back to their restaurants and living that with the teams. It was our best conference ever!"

Logan's Roadhouse Restaurants - Jim Kuehnhold, SVP

BREAKING BARRIERS - The Board Break Experience

This is an interactive team building experience. It is an emotional and physical metaphor that pushes your team to break through barriers and create new outcomes and possibilities. What if you could close your event in a powerfully memorable way so everyone walks out the door inspired to take action like never before? Watch the short video on this page to see now!

Chip is famous for the Board Break Experience and hundreds of companies have chosen him to close their convention with this proven team-building program. It will clarify individual and team goals as well as help them push past limitations. The process helps people recognize what they must believe in order to overcome obstacles that inhibit stellar performance so they can achieve new levels of success.

The Board Break Experience is the ultimate in employee motivation. Chip will often "bookend" your day, opening with a customized program and closing with this experience.

"You will never work with a speaker who can intertwine your business within their presentation the way Chip does. Most speakers are a "rental", Chip was a partner! He opened with "Get Switched On" which motivated our entire franchise system, gave them tactical advice and got them pumped up for the conference. He also closed the conference and tied everything together with the Board Break Experience! They left the conference saying they needed this and are "switched on" again and excited to go home and take everything they learned and put it into practice."

OWN IT! - Take Charge of Your Performance

Learn how to "Own It!" to close the gap between good and GREAT. Chip shows how the power of getting clear on what you want and how taking ownership of your results, expertise and energy will ignite tremendous performance improvements. He leads the audience to reevaluate their compelling vision, make new decisions, take personal responsibility, keep score, have a growth mindset, move the target and be a catalyst.

Many companies use OWN IT! as their theme for their event and have Chip as the keynote speaker.

Chip shows how incorporating more innovative or revolutionary change into everyday activities can lead to incredible change. For many, it may be taking ownership of their energy and vitality, which will lead to performance improvements in their career. He shows how the power of making even one new decision can ignite tremendous performance improvements.

How much better are you than you were three years ago?

Once he does his research and interviews attendees he will be able to challenge even your elite performers. Using a highly interactive approach, Chip challenges and entertains with a passionate style that will captivate and involve any audience. Each person takes home with them a committed plan, plus the motivation to get going. They'll leave with a clear call to action.

Let Chip show you and your team how to own it!

"Chip's message to our franchisees was exactly what they needed to own it and re-engaged in their business. You did your homework and it showed! The board break experience was a highlight of our conference that our franchisees will be talking about for years to come. Thank you Chip for making our conference memorable and impactful."

FT Fitness Together - Kristine Fisher, SVP & Chief Operations Officer
