

Cheryl Cran Bio

Future of Work & Change Leadership Expert

Cheryl Cran is a future of work and change leadership expert; her research has found that in the future of work everyone will be a leader. AND the future of work requires change leaders with fully developed leadership skills.

Cheryl has worked with and for global brands such as BDO, AT&T, Kaiser Permanente, Gartner, TEDX, Bell, Mass Mutual, Manulife, and more. The franchise groups she has worked with are McDonalds, Nando's, Cactus Club, Dollar Store, Jiffy Lube, Sheraton and more.

Cheryl Cran provides franchisors and franchisees; leaders and teams change leadership skills to lead with 2020 vision and tools to build the future workplace today.

Cheryl's research into the future of work, change leadership, technology innovation and generations impact provides data and strategies to help leaders drive transformation in a fast paced world and to create the future workplace TODAY!

An internationally renowned consultant and keynote speaker for twenty years, she has worked with hundreds of industries, in dozens of countries and with thousands of audiences worldwide to work with leaders on how to more effectively lead in these rapid times of fast paced change, increase innovation capabilities, build enhanced agility for individuals and to ultimately help organizations be adaptive and iconic leaders in their industries.

In her 20's Cheryl was a high performing senior leader in the banking and insurance industries. Her success leap in those industries resulted in being an intern for a major consulting firm before heading out on her own to establish her consulting firm in the late nineties. Fast forward and today Cheryl has a thriving practice and esteemed clients who achieve breakthrough success as a result of working with her.