

Rick Lewis Testimonials

"Rick Lewis was a perfect '10' as a franchise conference speaker. The fact that he managed to surprise, engage, entertain and deliver a provocative message was impressive! Rick really embodied the concept of opening up to new ideas and letting go of old, and possibly rigid ways of thinking. This was a great investment for our team and we've received some fantastic feedback from our franchisees."

Loren Goodridge, Development Agent, Subway Development of Maine

"Rick Lewis provided the most captivating, engaging and eye popping performance I have seen in my 30 years of conference presentations. Even more impressive was his deep insight into human behavior, the culture we align to, its blessings and its curse. Using excerpts from his book, "7 Rules You Were Born to Break", Rick broke down obstacles to taking risks, gave inspiration to "stand out", to be you and be different; and even taught a few men how to stop and ask for directions when in need of help. I have read it through twice now and will borrow heavily from the work in my leadership journey. I am forever changed! Hire Rick and get the book. You will not be disappointed. You are missing out if you don't!"

John C. Miller, President & CEO, Taco Bueno Restaurants

"To say the group enjoyed it would be an understatement. To this day folks still tell me how he was the best performer and speaker they have ever seen."

Tom Ferris, Corporate Meeting Director, Schwan's Foods

"Unreal. Simply one of the best corporate entertainers/speakers I have ever witnessed or hired. Rick was hired to perform/speak at a National Sales meeting that our company held. The entire staff was not only caught off guard by the presentation and entertained beyond any expectation, but truly enjoyed the complete act/discussion afterwards. At this time I was a Regional Sales Manager in the Northeast and hired Rick to perform for the New York State School Food Service Association. To say the group enjoyed it would be an understatement. To this day folks still tell me how that was the best performer/speaker they have ever seen."

Corporate Meeting Director, Schwan's Foods

“Rick was hired as the keynote speaker/entertainer for an academic conference of faculty and administrators. Not only was he enjoyable to watch as an entertainer, his ability to relate his performance back to the "why" behind education was amazing. I would strongly recommend him if you are looking for a unique and creative way to provide a keynote address with a solid message!”
Dean of Curriculum, Kaplan University

“Rick’s gift is humor, humility and an uncanny access to human beings and the barriers in our ability to work together effectively. I recommend this book to managers, business owners and every individual who is open to learning from a totally new vantage point.”
Dorothy Stingley, Franchise Owner and Operator, McDonald’s

“Thank you so much for appearing at our President’s Banquet! Your performance is still being talked about by our members. The waiter routine was a big hit with our group of foodies and I appreciate the professional manner in which you conducted your show. As if the waiter routine was not enough, our group really enjoyed your stage performance, especially the unicycle. They had a great time! I would also like to express my appreciation to you regarding keeping the evening moving. Not only was your performance outstanding, your intuition regarding timing of the evening and the mood of the audience was right on. I will always keep you in mind for future events without company.”
Tony Butler, Executive Vice President, Society for Food Management
