Terry Hawkins Program:

Why WAIT to be GREAT at SALES!

Eliminate, Renovate and Elevate to a revolutionary sales level.

Franchising is about productivity, performance and sales, on both sides of the fence, and our results say more about what we know and do than our capabilities. As the CEO of People In Progress Global, Terry Hawkins has been educating franchisees and businesses for over 23 years in the science and art of sales. She has a solid history of getting results, and through insightful and strategic sales methods she is driven to show franchisees how to create the most outstanding customer experiences possible.

Terry is not a philosophical presenter – she is a savvy business educator, and in this powerful productivity enhancer, Terry will show franchisees how to eliminate waste, renovate their sales performance and elevate it to levels they didn't even think possible!
