

Tim Gabrielson Bio

Magician, Comedian, Speaker, Author and Emcee.

Tim Gabrielson has two main goals when he steps on stage: 1) Inspire audiences to make positive, intentional choices, and 2) Keep It Funny.

Tim began performing at a local theme park at age 16. His comedic wit and natural timing combined with magical prowess quickly made him a park favorite. He soon became in-demand nationally for his riveting show combining clean humor and highly-skilled magic. It didn't take long to gain the attention of agents and producers alike—landing him with his own show on the Las Vegas strip.

A turning point for Tim was when he realized his humor was touching lives by allowing people to see beyond immediate hardships. Tim began infusing his show with a simple and profound take-away message: How to turn Lemons to Laughter. Tim teaches people how to respond instead of just reacting to life's situations resulting in a more meaningful and enthusiastic life.

Tim's "Keep it Funny" philosophy, as highlighted in his signature book, Lemons to Laughter, is apparent throughout his laugh-a-minute show. Tim performs at more than 100 events a year. His wide appeal makes his program valuable for all audience types.

As Tim states, "You can be a fabulous magician and make people laugh but the real key is, give the audience something of value to take away. I love to entertain but my true mission is to ignite people to live a happier life."
