

Tim Gabrielson Program

Lemons to Laughter

What can the Lemons to Laughter program do for your franchise system?

Tim Gabrielson shows us how to see the lighter side of anything in his hilarious, surprising, engaging and entertaining presentation, Lemons to Laughter.

Results include:

- Franchisees leading teams of happy employees-translating to:
 - Higher productivity
 - Better communication
 - The ability to find more creative solutions.
 - More authentic connections with customers and co-workers
 - A fully engaged franchise system

Tim teaches us with his Lemons to Laughter philosophy that creating a positive, productive and attractive environment is always a choice. Through our daily menu of choices we have the opportunity to reframe our negativity into positivity—thus creating a better day, a better business and a better life! When a single person makes an intentional effort to change the dynamics at work, it will have a positive ripple effect on everyone in you franchise organization.

- Choose to respond versus just react
- Find the fun in day to day interactions
- Create magical moments for the customer

Tim will inspire you with his words, entertain you with his breathtaking comedy and magic, and show you how to make small choices to make a big difference. Whether your audience is comprised of franchisees, franchisors, or the front line staff, your group will walk away invigorated and equipped to infuse the Lemons to Laughter culture into their businesses and their lives.
