

Dean Lindsay Testimonials

"Dean brings a great sense of how to connect quickly with people through impactful and fun stories. If your goal is to give your franchisees tools to drive sales and support it with service initiatives through a fun and energized session, I highly recommend Dean."

Jim Snow, President, Gold's Gym International

"Congratulations Dean. Getting a standing ovation from our team is no small feat. I am certain your presentation will help us meet and surpass our goals. Thanks for taking the time to research our company, interview some of our team, and customize your talk to meet our needs. You were right on the money - and on short notice too. We are already making plans to have you back. Welcome to the Wolfpack!"

Marcus Doyle, CEO, VRC Investigations

"We needed a speaker who could energize our licensees and provide a relevant message on sales leadership and dealing with change... Dean Lindsay did just that. Dean thoroughly engaged the audience with his timely and powerful message on meeting The Progress Challenge and working and winning in a world of change! "Excellent", "Positive", "Upbeat" replied our licensees. Thanks Dean. Awesome program."

Wendra Johnson, SPHR Vice President of TimePlus Payroll

"I just wanted to thank you for doing such a great job for us at the WIN Business Conference this year. I think your presentation on Priceless Business Relationships and Cracking the Networking CODE at the Sunday session was a great success. It was no doubt due to your enthusiasm and spell binding delivery. I did an informal survey of our Strategic-Partners to see which session they liked best, and got the most out of, and most people said it was your networking session. I think that will be a great benefit to our Strategic-Partners if they can learn the principles you espoused and then internalize them so they can use your techniques to effectively find ways to serve and help others progress. Thanks again for doing such a great job for us Dean. I know your presentation will be remembered and used by our Strategic- Partners for years to come."
