

Jason Lauritsen - Introduction

If we want to lead fuller, more connected, and more purposeful lives, we have to start at work. After all, it's where most of us spend most of our time.

Our speaker today, Jason Lauritsen, is on a mission to reshape how we experience work by consistently placing authentic human connection at the heart of leadership.

He will show us how we all have a role to play in fostering work cultures that are built on genuine care, support, and respect; cultures where everyone feels empowered to deliver their best.

In other words, he will share with us what it means to Lead With Relationship™ — and explain how changing the way we show up to work changes the way we show up to our lives.

Please welcome from Omaha, Nebraska, Jason Lauritsen!
