Eric's session around Moving from Great to Amazing was so impactful that several existing franchisee's shared that our conference in San Diego was the best in the company's 21-year history. Thank you for working so closely with our executive team to deliver a capstone experience to so many!

You lit up the room with enthusiasm and to this day, a month later, I am still getting emails from Store Managers about your speech! Your passion for leadership development shines through and engaged our audience. I had a number of Store Managers come up to me at our dinner the final night to tell me how impactful your presentation was.
